

SCHOOL BOYS IN ON EACH OTHER

Walker Gives Out Letters of the American Book Co. Relating to Copybooks.

WHAT HESTER HAS TO SAY

Says Walker Has Been Persistently Misrepresenting Him Since Failure to Get an Order.

J. W. Walker, who was arrested Saturday, on the charge of sending circulars to school children, is said to have been sent out by J. W. Walker.

Walker asserts that Hester, while superintendent of schools at Evansville and, therefore, a member of the State Board of Education, violated the instructions of the board in regard to using copybooks, and that the empty between him and Hester grew out of this.

The American Book Company, he says, was trying to have its copybooks placed in the schools of Indiana.

Walker gave out the following letters from the American Book Company to Walker in regard to the copybooks:

"Dear Mr. Walker—Yours of the 12th is received, also some newspaper clippings which we have read with a great deal of interest.

"Before Mr. Ira Eaton gets through with his copybook job in Indiana he will find it quite as possible to lose as to make money in the school book business.

"It would be an outrage if the people of Indiana were compelled to use the sort of stuff that is being put out by the American Book Company.

"Regarding vertical copy books in Indiana, we have carefully considered the matter and have concluded to send some samples and studies to you.

"We also believe you should know what can be done for Barnes Vertical in your field and put them in where it can be done without loss to you.

"We have received some letters from Indiana regarding prices on Barnes Vertical. The list price of these books is 75 cents, but we are willing to make a discount of 25 per cent.

"The reference to former Superintendent of Public Instruction D. M. Goetting, Walker explains, is the result of his protest to the committee on the election of a member of the Indianapolis School Board.

Walker says that the American Book Company, through one of its officials, Mr. Hawkins, antagonized Goetting's election by the opposition to it by its influence in this city.

Walker says that the American Book Company, through one of its officials, Mr. Hawkins, antagonized Goetting's election by the opposition to it by its influence in this city.

Walker says that the American Book Company, through one of its officials, Mr. Hawkins, antagonized Goetting's election by the opposition to it by its influence in this city.

Walker says that the American Book Company, through one of its officials, Mr. Hawkins, antagonized Goetting's election by the opposition to it by its influence in this city.

Walker says that the American Book Company, through one of its officials, Mr. Hawkins, antagonized Goetting's election by the opposition to it by its influence in this city.

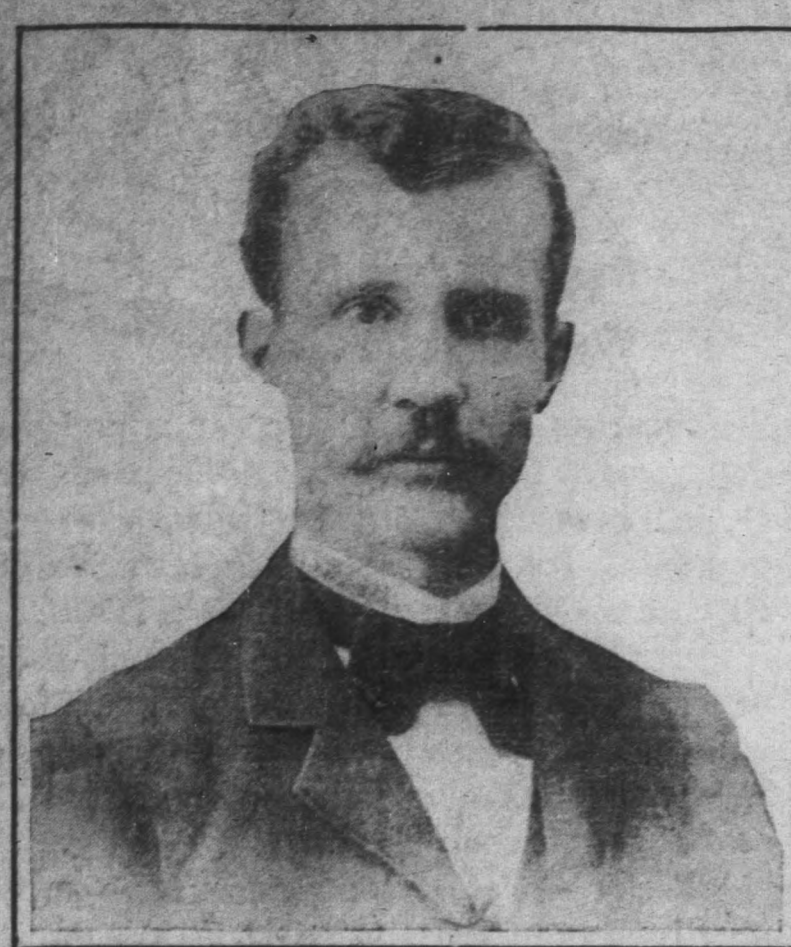

Walker says that the American Book Company, through one of its officials, Mr. Hawkins, antagonized Goetting's election by the opposition to it by its influence in this city.

Walker says that the American Book Company, through one of its officials, Mr. Hawkins, antagonized Goetting's election by the opposition to it by its influence in this city.

Walker says that the American Book Company, through one of its officials, Mr. Hawkins, antagonized Goetting's election by the opposition to it by its influence in this city.

Walker says that the American Book Company, through one of its officials, Mr. Hawkins, antagonized Goetting's election by the opposition to it by its influence in this city.

Walker says that the American Book Company, through one of its officials, Mr. Hawkins, antagonized Goetting's election by the opposition to it by its influence in this city.

W. A. HESTER.
The Evansville schoolman attacked by postal cards said to have been sent out by J. W. Walker.

TWO LADRONES CHIEFS BREAK THEIR CORDON GIRLS WERE SWITCHED BY TWO YOUNG MEN

MONTALLON AND FELIGARDO
FLY TO MOUNTAINS.

WHIPPED UNTIL THEY FELL IN A FAINT.

MANY LADRONES ARE KILLED
WERE CAUGHT IN AN ORCHARD

Had Taken Some Apples, Which was the Cause of the Assault—Assaults Arrested.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.)

PETERSBURG, Ind., July 22.—Two young men, George Spradlin and Milford Hurt, living near Winslow, caught two lads, age ten and twelve, by the name of Mason, in the Hurt apple orchard, taking fruit.

The young men pulled the girls down from the tree and Spradlin held them while Hurt got some switches from a nearby growth of underbrush.

Each taking a girl, they whipped them with the switches, wearing out two apples, until the girls became so weak they fainted.

Gashes were cut in their backs and legs. The young men left the girls in a desolate condition.

Their parents and neighbors, hearing screams, went to the scene and found the girls lying on the ground, being too weak to walk. They took them to their home and summoned officers.

A search was made and after some time the boys were located in a wood nearby. They were arrested. The girls are in a serious condition. The boys were taken before Judge Chambers, of Winslow, and a bond for their appearance Wednesday.

A mass meeting of the Merchants' Association, held in front of the police station, some time before Council met. There were little bunches here and there conspiring, and a stranger might have concluded the crowd was bent on crime and quick justice to one of the prisoners.

As the Council was called to order, the merchants stood in front of the police station, some time before Council met. There were little bunches here and there conspiring, and a stranger might have concluded the crowd was bent on crime and quick justice to one of the prisoners.

Mr. Negley reported the franchise from the committee on contracts and franchises. A favorable report was signed by Negley. The report was adopted by the Council.

There was no minority report. The report was adopted by the Council. The report was adopted by the Council.

There was no minority report. The report was adopted by the Council. The report was adopted by the Council.

There was no minority report. The report was adopted by the Council. The report was adopted by the Council.

There was no minority report. The report was adopted by the Council. The report was adopted by the Council.

There was no minority report. The report was adopted by the Council. The report was adopted by the Council.

There was no minority report. The report was adopted by the Council. The report was adopted by the Council.

There was no minority report. The report was adopted by the Council. The report was adopted by the Council.

There was no minority report. The report was adopted by the Council. The report was adopted by the Council.

MERCHANTS TAKE ON THEIR FIGHT

City Council Passed Their Heating and Lighting Franchise Last Night.

WERE OPPOSED TO BOODLE

And They Served Notice on Certain Councilmen that No Money Would be Spent.

Members of the Merchants' Association express satisfaction at the passage of their heat and light ordinance, and say that it relieves them of an embarrassing suspicion that a plot had been laid to "bleed" them. Intentions had been made by certain councilmen that other councilmen could not be induced to vote for the ordinance unless it was made "worth while."

The intentions finally became so broad that the merchants' committee served notice that there was "not a cent in it" for anybody. "We would rather spend our money to purify the Council than to get our ordinance passed," was the position taken by the association. It was broadly intimated that the councilmen who were hinting at assistance represented that on a former occasion when a similar ordinance was pending they had been "seen" to the extent of $500 each.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

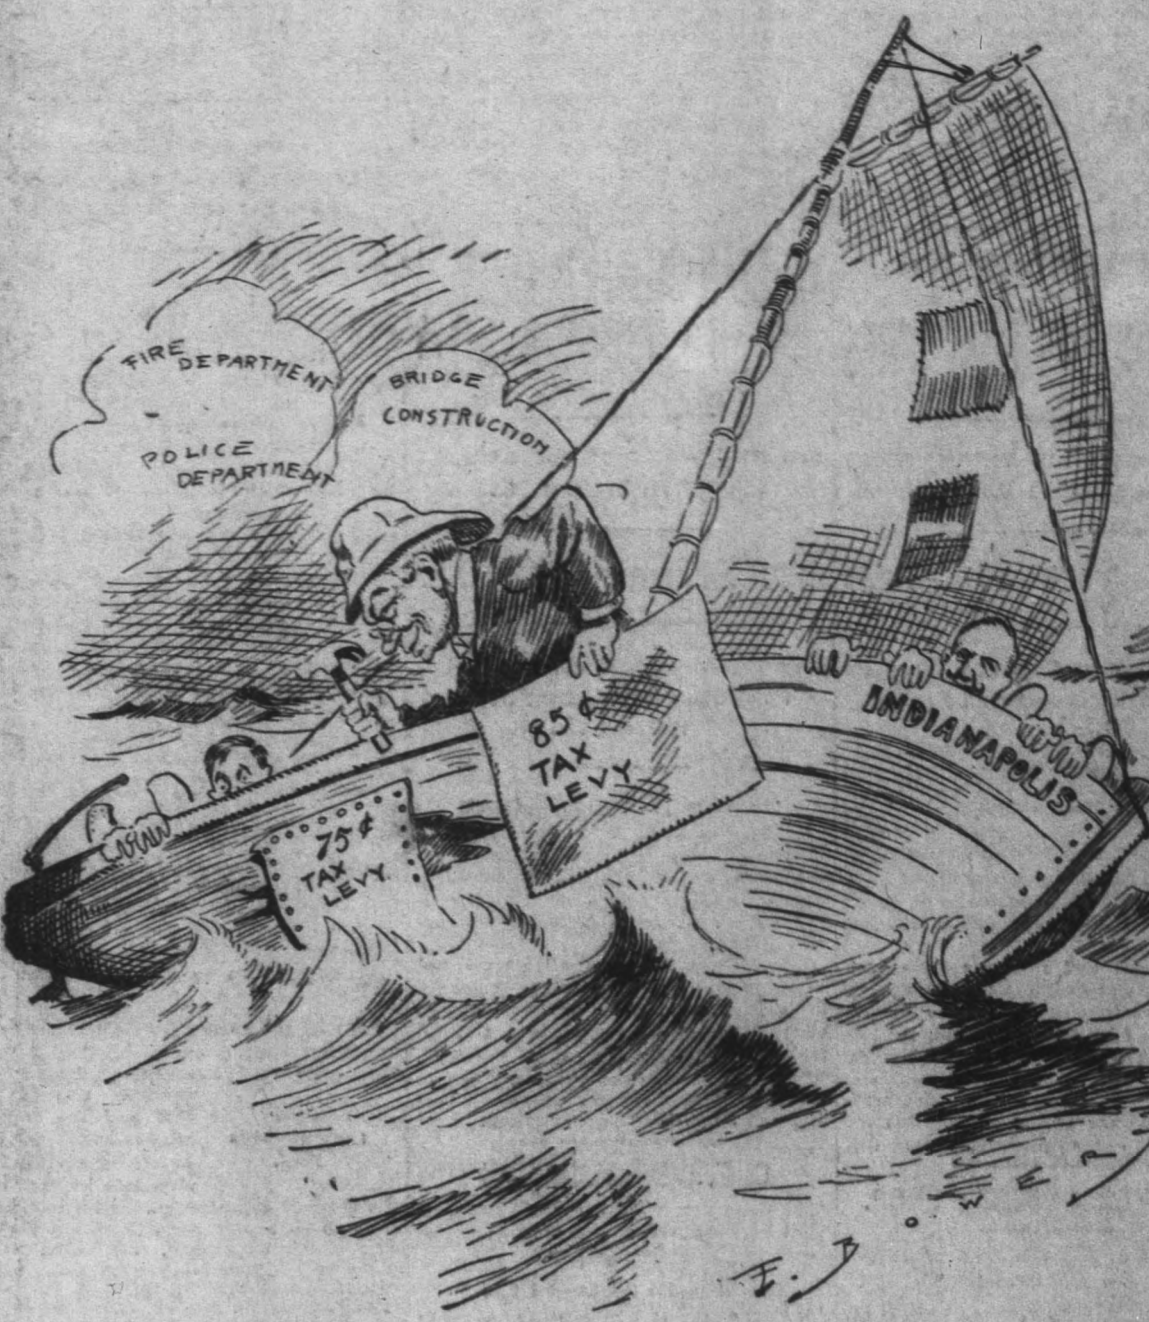

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

The merchants' committee was brought up by the revelations made and was practically in continuous session hearing reports from the campaign politicians. Familiar with the former proceedings of councilmen offered bids that the merchants would not accept.

PATCHING THE CITY SHIP.

MAYOR BOOKWALTER SAYS THERE WAS A HOLE IN THE BOAT WHEN HE GOT ABOARD.

TWO MURDERERS DIE ON GALLOWES

Ashley Cooke and Tom Lauderdale
Hanged at Greenville, Miss.,
at 11.40 To-Day.

CRIME WAS COLOBLOODED

They Shot G. M. Wray, an Engineer, to Death on the Train Without the Slightest Provocation.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.)

GREENVILLE, Miss., July 22.—Ashley Cooke and Tom Lauderdale were hanged here at 11:40 this forenoon.

After the men were convicted they showed no sign of remorse and spent much of their time in talking flippantly of death.

Only yesterday Cooke said he hoped he would be hanged before noon, so that he would be in h-l for dinner. Both men were highly connected, and their case attracted wide attention through the South.

Story of the Crime.

The crime for which Cooke and Lauderdale were hanged was committed on the morning of December 28, 1931, near Elizabeth.

Ashley Cooke, Tom Lauderdale, Will Blackburn and G. M. Phillips boarded the north-bound passenger train at 3 o'clock in the morning for the purpose of returning to their homes at Shelby.

G. M. Wray, an engineer, was a passenger on the train. He was shot by Cooke and his three companions who were all more or less under the influence of liquor.

Phillips fell asleep on the train. Cooke and Lauderdale were tried together, convicted and sentenced to be hanged March 21, 1932. An appeal was taken which was denied.

The Supreme Court reviewed the case of Cooke and Lauderdale, affirming the decision of the lower court, and fixing Tuesday, July 22, as the day for the execution.

An effort by influential relatives and friends of the condemned men to have the death sentence commuted to life imprisonment proved ineffectual. Governor Longino refused to interfere. Blackburn was sent to prison for life, his previous character having been proved exceptionally good.

Forgave the Murderer.

PORT GILSON, Miss., July 22.—Abe Deal was hanged here today for the killing of Hargis Miller. Both were negroes. The father of the murdered boy witnessed the hanging. Deal, on the scaffold, asked his forgiveness for the crime.

"We forgive you," replied the father.

ARCHBISHOP OF MANILA.

The Pope will probably appoint Sebastian Messmer.

ST. VINCENT IS SHAKING.

Inhabitants Are Excited and Fear a Tidal Wave.

KINGSTOWN, Island of St. Vincent, July 21.—There was another severe earthquake here at 1:10 o'clock this morning.

It was of long duration and was accompanied by a repetition of the phenomena of Thursday last. The shock caused intense excitement among the inhabitants, who fled in their nightclothes into the streets and remained out of doors until daybreak.

Partially demolished buildings are being pulled down to-day for public safety. There was a thunderstorm last night. To-day the weather is very sultry and the sea is rough. Some people anticipate a tidal wave.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS TALKS WITH PLATT

LAUGHED AND CHUCKLED AND HAD A GOOD TIME.

ROOSEVELT IS VERY STRONG

The Indiana Senator Does Not Know
What Indiana Will Do
in 1934.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Senator Thomas C. Platt and Senator C. W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, had a long talk Sunday on the veranda of the Oriental Hotel, at Manhattan beach.

Each one said that it was a talk of "old times," and to judge from the quiet laughter with which Senator Platt greeted most of the Indiana senator's remarks it was clear that the subject of conversation was not an uncontentious one, says the Tribune.

It is an open secret that Senator Fairbanks is a candidate for the presidential nomination on the Republican ticket in 1934, but he declined to discuss his candidacy except to say that he was out of politics until the next campaign, at which Senator Platt winked and chuckled good-naturedly.

The two senators had had their conference it was noted about the beach that Senator Fairbanks had tried to sound the New York Senator as to the probability of this State's endorsing President Roosevelt in 1934, and if not, what were his own chances. Senator Fairbanks also declined to discuss this report.

Talks Crops.

When Senator Fairbanks was asked whether Indiana would endorse President Roosevelt for 1934, he said: "Roosevelt is very strong out West, but as to whether Indiana will commit itself to his re-nomination in 1934 I can't say."

"I am out of politics until the next campaign. What interests me most now is business, and I can say that the opportunities for business were never better in this country than at the present time."

"The prosperity of the United States has not only won the admiration of other nations, but it has alarmed them as well. Our crops are good in the West, so that both farmer and manufacturer should be content with their lot."

AN INDIANIAN BUYS A CHICAGO HOTEL.

Windsor-Clifton New Property of C. Neipp, of Terre Haute.

CHICAGO, July 22.—The Windsor-Clifton Hotel, for long a prominent Chicago hotel, was yesterday sold by Samuel Gregston to C. Neipp, an Indiana hotel man.

Mr. Neipp began his hotel experience in Europe, and has spent twenty years in active service in this country. He said that he has recently operated the Terre Haute Hotel, Terre Haute, Ind., and the St. Nicholas, at Decatur, Ill.

TESTIMONY IN LATIMER CASE

Coroner Is Trying to Find Out
Who Killed Wealthy Business Man.

WITNESS QUOTES THE WIDOW

Mrs. Treadwell Repeats a Conversation—The Much-Talked About Wm. Tutthill Denies a Story.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The coroner's inquest called to investigate the shooting of Albert C. Latimer, a wealthy business man, at his home in Brooklyn on the morning of July 2, was resumed today. Latimer died in a hospital. All he told of the shooting was that he was shot in bed, and that he did not believe it was done by a burglar.

Frank Taylor testified that he had heard shots on the morning of July 2, and that some one cried out, "Walter, Walter!"

Mrs. Bella Treadwell testified that a long time ago Mrs. Latimer said: "It was hard to be tied to a man and see some one else really loved."

Mrs. Treadwell thought the remark was made without any reference to Mrs. Latimer herself.

William H. Tutthill was called. He said he read that Latimer, when in the hospital, asked if he (Tutthill) was being watched. He denied that a meeting between him and Mrs. Latimer, in Twenty-third street, New York, told of by Latimer's sister, was prearranged. The matter was explained to Latimer, and they continued friends.

On the night of the shooting he went to the Clarendon Hotel, called on a young woman friend, whose name he would give if required, and then he went home, arriving there at 11:15. Later, a patrol wagon was sent for him by Mrs. Latimer, and he went to her home and did what he could for her. He said he could not account for Latimer's question: "Is Tutthill being watched?"

It was true, he said, that he stayed at the Latimer home two nights after the shooting, but he did so because none of Latimer's brothers was able to remain there.

Hanna Larsen, a servant in the Tutthill home, corroborated Tutthill's statement that he arrived at his home at 11:15. The witness said she could not describe Tutthill's bicycle clothes.

Elsie Kasindorf, who lives near the Latimers, said he heard loud voices in the Latimer house five minutes before the shooting. He could see the back yard of the house where the shooting took place and he was sure no one escaped that way.

Mrs. Latimer Recalled.

Mrs. A. C. Latimer, the widow, was recalled and asked to describe the man she said shot her husband. She said the intruder wore a mask, so that she could not see his face, therefore she did not know the color of his eyes, nor whether he had a mustache. He was of medium height. He wore the peaked cap found in the house after the shooting. The hearing went over until to-morrow.

RIVER DYKES BREAK.

Low Lands Around Pekin, Ill., Are Under Water.

PEORIA, July 22.—The Illinois river reached the high of twenty-one feet above low-water mark on the Government gauge here last night. To-day the dykes near Pekin, on which are the tracks of the Peoria & Pekin Terminal railway, gave way. Over 1,000 feet of track is gone and the water is pouring through the crevices, flooding hundreds of acres of grain, which was previous to the break, not much damaged.

HE ATE GRASS WITH CATTLE

Sad Case of Earl Fosdyke, an Indiana Young Man, Who Became Insane in Kansas.

FOUND AFTER LONG SEARCH

Was in a Pasture Field Living and Feeding with the Farm Stock—Armed with Knife.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.)

WICHITA, July 22.—A sad case came to light here to-day. Earl Fosdyke, nineteen years of age, who came here recently from his home at Matthews, Ind., to visit his uncle, W. B. Ross, of this city, disappeared mysteriously five days ago.

It was supposed that he had returned home, but as he did not appear there a diligent search was made for him. No trace of the young man was discovered until this morning, when he was found living and feeding with cattle in a pasture six miles south of Wichita. He seemed contented in the company of the beasts and ate grass and grain on his hands and knees.

Armed with a Butcher Knife.

Fosdyke had armed himself with a butcher knife, and it was with the greatest difficulty that he could be approached. It took four men and an immense amount of strategy to capture him. His uncle was in the party that overpowered Fosdyke, but the nephew paid no attention to his entreaties or advice, and the only way they could get near him was by throwing out corn, when he came forward with the cattle to eat it. A safe opportunity being given, he was suddenly seized and the knife jerked from his hand.

He fought desperately, but the four strong farmers winnowed him, and he was taken to the Ross farm. He is now in the custody of the police. His relatives in Indiana have been notified.

FATHER WAS NOTIFIED.

Young Fosdyke is a Victim of Consumption.

(Special to The Indianapolis News.)

MATTHEWS, Ind., July 22.—Earl Fosdyke, age nineteen years, who suddenly became insane in Kansas, lived with his parents about three miles southeast of Matthews, on the Hartford City pike. During the last five years, he worked in the Van Camp glass factory, and when the living and feeding with cattle in a pasture six miles south of Wichita. He seemed contented in the company of the beasts and ate grass and grain on his hands and knees.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

His condition failed to improve, and this morning his family received a telegram announcing that the boy was no better, and requesting the father to come for him. His father left this morning for Wichita, Kan., in the hope of recovering from consumption.

THE INDIANAPOLIS NEWS

PUBLISHED EVERY AFTERNOON
(EXCEPT SUNDAY)At The News Building, Nos. 32 and 34
West Washington Street.Entered at the Postoffice at Indianapolis, Ind.,
as Second-class Matter.NEW YORK OFFICE - Tribune Building
CHICAGO OFFICE - Tribune Building
WASHINGTON OFFICE - Post Office BuildingTELEPHONE CALLS.
Old Company, Nos. 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.
Call any of these numbers, or simply THE NEWS, and ask for the department you want.

THE COUNCIL AND THE MERCHANTS.

Apparently these members of the Council who were supposed to be hostile to the merchants' heating and lighting franchise, either came to the conclusion that it would be unsafe to oppose it, or else changed their minds as to the merits of the question. For the franchise was ratified by a vote of 19 to 1. Even men who had publicly declared that they would never vote for the franchise, cast their votes in its favor. Mr. Berry was the only man that held out. Of course, the Council did the right thing, and so is entitled to credit. A failure to ratify the franchise would not only have been bad for the city, but it would have reflected seriously on the Council.

It seems to us that a word of advice to the business men in this connection may not be amiss. One of the councilmen, in his speech explaining his position, said that the merchants were selfish and were not animated by any real public spirit. Would it not be well if our merchants would occasionally show some of the intense interest that they manifested in this heating and lighting scheme in matters with which they have no direct personal concern? There is always much complaint of the unwillingness of our prominent citizens to bother much with politics. But when a great issue which directly touches them comes to the front, as the silver question a few years ago, they bestir themselves at a great rate, and quarrel with the statesmen and politicians for allowing things to get in such a shape. And it seems that it is necessary to frighten the business men in order to get them properly interested in public affairs.

We believe that, as far as Indianapolis is concerned, the people could have about what they want if they would, all of them, go after it with the vigor that was shown by those who wished to secure the heating and lighting franchise. It may be that if all our people were interested in public affairs as they should be, they would find that the Council is as responsible to good as it is to bad influences. Many an ordinance is no doubt passed by the Council without any proper understanding of what it means, and in the ignorance of the wishes of the people. In all matters affecting the public interests there ought to be more co-operation between the people and their municipal agents. For one of the gravest perils of the times is the widening chasm between the taxpayers and the men who spend the taxes.

A PECULIAR ARGUMENT.

In a woman's suffrage address delivered at Ashbury Park, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt said that two-thirds of the church members are women and nine-tenths of the criminals are men, and that the women are better qualified to vote. We doubt very much whether two-thirds of the church members are women, but Mrs. Catt is right in saying that nine-tenths of the criminals are men. If by criminals she means only those who are shut up in prison, at least the census of 1890 shows that nine-tenths of the prisoners in the United States were in that year men. But what does the fact amount to as an argument for suffrage? There were only 75,924 men in prison in 1890 out of a male population of 23,315,081. In that year there were 16,940,311 men of voting age, and out of this vast number only 75,924 were prisoners. Surely this is an insignificant percentage. And where the number of criminals is so infinitesimal, it does not matter how it is divided between the sexes.

Mrs. Catt's argument is, therefore, rather amusing than otherwise. Probably she does not realize that it is impossible to accomplish anything by her cause by proving or attempting to prove the useless, either absolute or comparative, of the men to vote. But really, the fact for such comparisons between the sexes has long since passed. Both men and women have their weaknesses as well as their virtues, and though they are influenced by different temptations, it is still to be said that their proneness to yield is the result of human fallibility, rather than sex perversion. We are all children of Adam, and all—whether criminals or not—sinners. Therefore this habit of instituting comparisons between men and women always favors somewhat of hypocrisy. But it is a sad thing to reflect that if Mrs. Catt ever secures the right to vote, it will be at the hands of the men, who are really, in her opinion, so unfit to vote.

LACK OF HARMONY.

The Milwaukee Sentinel, the organ of the stalwart faction of the Republican party in Wisconsin, indulges in some rather ominous mutterings over the recent State convention, which was, as it says, controlled by La Follette. It remarks that "although there were more than a thousand delegates in the Republican State convention, . . . one man, and he not a delegate, was a majority of that body." That man was, of course, Governor La Follette. But really, the Sentinel ought to know that conventions frequently, if not usually, are controlled by men who are not delegates. It has been many years since there has been a convention of the Republicans of Pennsylvania which was not controlled by Senator Quay, whether he was a delegate or not. In the good, old days, no Republican convention in New York would have thought of questioning one of Platt's orders, and Croker had only to speak the word to have the Democrats of New York on their knees before him. If it is true that La Follette "ran" the Wisconsin convention, that fact simply proves that he is a successful boss.

But the interesting feature of this situation is that the Milwaukee Sentinel, though it accepts the ticket as the regularly nominated Republican ticket, and as such is supported, repudiates a part of the platform, which is, of course, as much work of the convention as the ticket is. It is regrettable that part of the platform dealing with primary election reform, nor does it think that it is "necessary in this case for the minority to subscribe to the platform demands of the majority." Really, we do not know why it is not necessary. The theory, of course, is that in indulging a specific law, and in attempting to bind the Legislature to enact it, and to compel Senator Spooner to endorse it, the convention exceeded its powers. But who is to be the judge of that? The convention was fairly chosen, its regularity has not been questioned, the so-called stalwarts participated in its deliberations throughout without the suggestion of a bolt, and now it seems as though they can not deny one part of the platform without denying it all. The convention had a right to do as it pleased so long as it did not set aside or antagonize fundamental Republican principles. It did neither of these things. The Sentinel leaves the case thus:

So far as individuals are concerned, they must decide the issues for themselves. Their right as American citizens and their right of private judgment demand that they make that decision wisely and for the best interests of the State.

If this does not point straight to a bolt, it at least means that the Sentinel would not be greatly grieved to see a stalwart bolt. Finally, we confess that we do not see how the supposedly unrepentant parts of the platform are to be repudiated without repudiating the ticket itself. If the candidates are elected on the platform, they will be elected as a whole, as they will be if elected at all, they will as honorable men be compelled to endeavor earnestly to carry it out. A vote for La Follette is a vote for the platform and all that it contains. The Republican harmony in Wisconsin is not of a pervasive type.

CHURCH VADEVILLES.

The New York Tribune rises to remark that "the ecclesiastical variety show is rapidly becoming perfected and widened in scope." It is moved to this statement by the fact that a young woman recently gave a whistling solo at the close of Sunday morning services of the Lexington-avenue Baptist church. The Tribune tells us that "the audience (or congregation), so it is reported, were delighted and demanded an encore, the soloist responding with 'The Mocking Bird.'" Of course we have simply reached the logical result of conditions which have for some time prevailed. More and more our churches—at least those of the nonliturgical variety—have been turning what should be a solemn service into a show. All sorts of "features," many of them harmless in themselves, have been introduced, and more people than one likes to think, have lost all idea of what a real service of worship means. For instance, if the minister of the Lexington-avenue Baptist church had really understood that his service, if it was worth anything at all, was in all its parts musical as well as other, a solemn offering to Almighty God, he would not for a moment have sanctioned the "show" to which the Tribune rightly objects.

The tendency is shown even in little things. The very habit, which the New York paper suggests, of speaking of the congregation as an "audience" simply means that many of us look on the congregation, not as a participant in the worship, but as a crowd of people to whom the so-called worship is addressed. The congregation thus becomes something to be entertained and amused, and so it is fittingly spoken of as an audience. The habit that many of our choirs have of facing the congregation and singing to it reveals the same unworshipful tendency. So with the music that is selected. Operatic airs, settings of glorious and dignified hymns, to catch or slightly sentimental modern tunes, and generally the fondness for music without one shred of solemn religious aspiration in it, are very much in vogue at the present time. And this fact, too, proves that the thought of choirs and choralesters—and of ministers as far as they are responsible—is not of God, but of the "audience." Of course, the fundamental difficulty is that our people have so far lost the sense of worship. When they choose their church they choose the one that has the best preacher and the finest music. Even when they go to get real blessings—and we do go to church to get something—they forget that it is their duty to give something as well, namely the worship of a contrite heart and a broken spirit. Music that is not fit for the praise of God, and that is not adapted to express the contrition and penitence of a worshiper, is not fitting for use in church. It is not enough that it is fine, "pretty" or popular, or even that it is fine. It must have the religious element in it. Without that it is an impertinence and may be blasphemous. The Tribune concludes its little sermon thus:

Those throughout the land who desire to see our churches attract worshippers by beautiful and fitting means, musical and other, not by theatrical novelties in dubious taste, will hardly welcome this latest innovation and approach to a canary choir.

Indeed, they will not. Yet the young woman meant no harm, and the church meant none. They simply did not know. They slipped through ignorance, and their ignorance is shared by very many people who, though they would not offend so frequently and in many ways. Possibly things will have to get worse before they get better. But they are bad enough now. Two things could be done which would help matters greatly. First, the ministers ought to be trained in church music, and secondly, they should have supreme power over the choirs. And they should use their power.

What is the pull of the gamblers, and why? Because he loved her so, a man nearly cut his wife's head off. What strange way some men have of displaying affection!

Lesson to be learned from the accident at Riverside yesterday: Don't monkey with the bear.

If the preaching by telephone habit grows, one can go to sleep during a three-hour sermon without offending the pastor.

We certainly see no reason why the city should abandon its purpose of demanding a small car tax from the inter-urban roads. The city taxes every other vehicle on a bicycle up. The tax laid on the cars is very small. The roads in any event must provide themselves with proper terminal facilities. They must take care of their traffic. There is positively no relation between the building of a station and the exaction of a tax. If the car tax is proper, then it should stand, station or no station. If it is not proper, then it should be given up.

station or no station. But it would be most short-sighted to give up for thirty years a proper source of income, merely to hasten the erection of a station, which, if the traffic justifies it, will in any event soon be built.

And Mr. Bookwalter promised there should be no gambling. Just "promised."

The officers of the warship Illinois are exonerated from all blame for the recent accident. But the hole in the ship's bottom is still there.

The London Times has an advertisement requesting those who borrowed books from the late Lord Acton to return them. Mr. Carnegie has bought the library, and he can't afford to lose the books.

Once more the Sultan promises reforms in Macedonia. He is almost as glib with his promises of reform as majority candidates in Indianapolis.

Money talks! Two subscriptions of $5,000 for the Arsenal purchase fund are something like. Now for the long pull, the strong pull and the pull all together. We can not let the great opportunity slip. First the money to purchase must be in sight. Then we must see to it that the Government gets options on thousands of acres within a few miles of the city at reasonable prices. We have not only the opportunity to get within the heart of the city a great national institution, but we have an opportunity that for a score of years we have thought was vital, namely, to get an army post—real army post. This can not be done, however, it must be remembered, if attempts are made to hold land at fancy prices. The Government will not haggle nor will it be imposed on. If it can get ground at a reasonable price, and can sell the Arsenal in the same way, the whole thing will be done, and we shall have this great scheme consummated, but if there is delay or attempt to "make money" out of it, it may end here and now. If ever there was a time in which action instant and effective was needed, this is the time, this is the time, and this is the job.

Public opinion clearly pronounced its influence even with the Council. Only one man, after all, voted against the Merchants' heating and lighting franchise.

Well, well, are Americans to take orders from Emperor William?

And now there is talk of buying Greenland from Denmark. The chief assets of the island are the cryolite and Greenland's icy mountains.

How foolish of May Yoh! It was the husband she ought to have looked up in the safety deposit vault.

Why does not that Oregon sheriff who after Tracy issue daily bulletins, as for the men and women who are so busy with their own affairs, as to be just as hard to catch as De Wet was.

Colonel Vilas, once Secretary of the Interior, in President Cleveland's Cabinet, makes a most sane and sober statement concerning the Democratic party. Wisdom and justice he declares must confess that former differences were sincere, but yet that uprightness and honesty were not lacking. The loss of mutual respect, and that they must do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic party will do so and leave the past to bury its own dead if the party is to accomplish anything in the future. All this is true, but whether it will follow is not so certain. Judging human nature or Democratic men and women, we are inclined to believe that the Democratic

2000 Readers
A For So
1 Cent
A Word in
The News

WANT COLUMNS

WANT COLUMNS

VERY GOOD ENDING TO A VERY POOR START

HOOSIERS BUMP MOCK IN SEVENTH AND EIGHTH.

MILLER LOST SIGHT OF PLATE

All of Toledo's Runs Due to Wildness on Long Ralph's Part—Hogriever's Finger in It.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION STANDING.
Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Louisville	44	27	.614
Indianapolis	43	27	.614
St. Paul	41	29	.586
Kansas City	39	31	.557
Columbus	38	32	.543
Minneapolis	37	33	.527
St. Louis	36	34	.514
Toledo	35	35	.500

For an uncomfortably long time yesterday it looked as though Toledo, which serves as a foundation stone for the other teams in the American Association, would make Indianapolis look like the charge from a dollar after a 7-cent purchase. For six innings, class would not show, and the joyful intelligence that the scoreboard bore from Louisville failed to arouse enthusiasm, for it seemed that the Hoosiers were bent on a sympathetic stumble with the Colonels.

After having left Mock alone for three innings, the home team came down to the seventh with a score of 5 to 2 against it. Mock seemed to be general manager of the situation, but in an ungoverned moment in the seventh, he allowed Miller, Hogriever and Kuhns to squeeze out hits, Miller scoring on that of Hogriever. Woodruff laid down a sacrifice, and Kihm threw a further shock into the Toledo camp by hitting to center. Gills came in on the ball, and by rapid-fire work he got it home in time to nip Kuhns, though the latter would have made the base easily had not Smith stood squarely on the third bag, necessitating a wide detour on the part of Kuhns. Flick went out at third.

Back in the Eighth.

In sight of victory, Indianapolis lost no time in setting the issue in the eighth. Class asserted itself. Fox began with a single and stole second and got to third on Kildow's poor throw. Smith was again on the bag, ready to block Fox in case he should try to score on the play. Hogriever was coaching. Grasping the situation, he darted at Smith and gave him a push in the small of the back that sent him spinning fifteen feet. Smith knew his guilt and he did not make a show of resentment. Coulter went out, but Heydon tripled to right center. Fox scoring the tying run. Miller popped to Burns, but Hogriever blew the whistle to a good day's work by rapping out his third hit, scoring Heydon.

For four innings Ralph Miller pitched like a bowl of cold soup. With two gone in the first inning, he passed three in succession, forcing in a run. Gills followed with a single, scoring two more. There was another base on balls in the second and one in the third. In the fourth, with the decks almost cleared, a two-bagger, tributed to the support of Owens and Turner and Smith soaked a two-bagger, leaving both basemen stranded.

Miller begged to stay with the game, and Watkins yielded. Thereafter Miller pitched like a rising hot porterhouse, and Toledo could not find her way. Flick played short in place of O'Brien, who had a very sore right arm.

INDIANAPOLIS.
Player	R.	H.	E.
Hogriever, rf	1	1	0
Kuhns, lf	3	0	1
Woodruff, 2b	3	0	0
Miller, p	4	0	2
Flick, 3b	4	0	2
Smith, 1b	4	0	2
Coulter, c	1	1	0
Heydon, 2b	2	1	0
Miller, p	1	1	0
Totals	23	9	12

TOLEDO.
Player	R.	H.	E.
Burns, rf	5	0	1
Manney, rf	5	0	1
Owens, lf	4	2	4
Smith, 1b	4	1	2
Turner, 2b	4	1	2
Watkins, 3b	4	1	2
Coulter, c	4	1	2
Kildow, p	4	1	2
Mock, p	4	1	2
Totals	36	11	16

Base on balls: Miller, 7; by Mock, 4. Struck out—by Miller, 5; by Mock, 2. Two-base—Flick, 2; Smith, 1. Sacrifices—Woodruff, 2; Burns, 1; Owens, 1. Stolen bases—Flick, 2; Smith, 1; Burns, 1. Left on bases—Indianapolis, 8; Toledo, 10. Umpire—Tindell. Time—1:45. Attendance—370.

DOUBLE-HEADER TO-MORROW.

Indianapolis and Toledo will offer Bargain Sale at Washington Park.

Indianapolis and Toledo will play a double-header at Washington Park to-morrow, the first game being called at 2 o'clock. These will be the last games here until August 8, and a double-clean-up will put Indianapolis in close proximity to Louisville.

GOOD NEWS FROM LOUISVILLE.

Colonels Unable to Connect With Bailey and Lose Close Game.

Only in the eighth inning were the Colonels able to do business with Bailey yesterday. After two runs had been scored in this inning, Knoll shot off further runs by a great running catch, saving the day for Columbus. Coons was hit harder than the score shows. Kansas City won again yesterday, pulling the game out of the fire in the eighth inning by hitting Spencer for two runs. Elliott and Stimmler had a pitcher's argument yesterday, Stimmler having a little the better of the affair. Lillard was put out of the game. Scores:

LOUISVILLE.
Player	R.	H.	E.
Louisville	0	0	0
Columbus	0	1	0
Batteries—Bailey and Fox; Coons and Spier.
AT KANSAS CITY.
Player	R.	H.	E.
Kansas City	0	0	0
Minneapolis	0	2	0
Batteries—Waller and Bell; Spore and Meyer.
AT MILWAUKEE.
Player	R.	H.	E.
Milwaukee	0	1	0
St. Paul	0	1	0
Batteries—Stimmler and Hurley; Elliott and Coons.

American League Results.
Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Chicago	42	29	.589
St. Louis	40	31	.563
Philadelphia	39	32	.549
Boston	38	33	.534
Washington	37	34	.520
Cleveland	36	35	.507
Pittsburgh	35	36	.493
Detroit	34	37	.479

At Philadelphia.
Player	R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	11	11	1
Cleveland	10	10	3
Batteries—Dillon, 5; 11; 2; Dison, 5; 11; 2; Patterson, 5; 11; 2.
At Baltimore.
Player	R.	H.	E.
Baltimore	3	11	1
St. Louis	2	6	0
Batteries—Dillon, 5; 11; 2; Patterson, 5; 11; 2.

National League Results.
Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Pittsburgh	42	29	.589
Chicago	40	31	.563
Cleveland	39	32	.549
Boston	38	33	.534
Washington	37	34	.520
Cleveland	36	35	.507
Pittsburgh	35	36	.493
Detroit	34	37	.479

PREACHERS ON THE GOLF LINKS AT WINONA LAKE.

DR. S. C. DICKEY PLAYING A MATCH GAME WITH DR. J. WILBUR CHAPMAN.

Dr. Chapman is back of the caddies. Dr. Dickey is Driving.

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

WINONA LAKE, Ind., July 22.—The Rev. J. Cunningham Smith, of Indianapolis, has broken the records of the Winona golf course, set by National Champion Fred Herd and State Champion Lillard, by completing the nine holes in forty-five strokes.

Herd, two years ago, established the record of forty-eight, which stood two seasons and was only lowered this year by State Champion Lora Lillard, of Marion, who, on July 4, made the course in forty-six. Smith states that the Winona course is one of the best in the country.

A number of good players are covering the course in low record style now, among them J. M. Coulter, of Chicago; Dr. S. C. Dickey, of Indianapolis; Stanley Coulter, of Purdue, and Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, of New York. Diddle, of Indianapolis, holds the lead among the local players, his record being forty-eight. Arrangements are now being made for a tournament here later in the season that will bring the most noted players of each Indiana city. The golf course covers one hundred acres of rolling land, and presents many natural difficulties.

LITTLE THINGS IN BASEBALL.

Kihm is clouting the ball again. Inquirer-Coulter's first name is spelled Cy, and not Sigh.

There are some batters on the Indianapolis team, and there is no getting around this fact.

Flick had two errors, one of which was excusable, as it was the miff of a poorly thrown ball.

Toledo has a good man in Owens. He knows the possibilities of a bat better than most players.

Hogriever scored a run, batted in two others and made a rattling good catch of Flanagan's line drive.

Roscoe Miller, the best pitcher Detroit ever had, has jumped to the New York team. Score one for McGraw.

Columbus outbid New York in the play for Johnny Dobbie's services and the ex-player will be found in the Senators' outer garden.

Western League scores yesterday were:

Omaha 2, Kansas City 1 (sixteen innings); St. Joseph 2, Des Moines 1; Denver 7, Milwaukee 2.

Catcher Bill Maloney, who was with the St. Louis team of the American League, has been signed by Cincinnati. Clarence Currie has signed with St. Louis.

The sixth inning was worse than having a tooth pulled.

Flick led off with a two-bagger, but Fox popped to Turner and Heydon and Heydon beat up the air.

Three-1 League games yesterday were:

Rockford 6, Decatur 5; Rockford 5, Decatur 6; Bloomington 8, Rock Island 7; Cedar Rapids 4, Evansville 2; Cedar Rapids 2, Evansville 0.

In the fourth and fifth innings the first Indianapolis batter was passed, but in each case a murderously rapid double play followed.

It took fighting spirit to keep on plugging after this.

Had Miller lost his game, there would have been ground for complaint that he was not taken out of the box.

However, a pitcher sometimes knows just when he is beginning to get right, and Miller had an idea that the fourth was the end of his ill luck.

Tebeau, manager of the Louisville team, and right-hand man of President H. C. Brown, of the American Association, written a letter to Manager Frank of the Memphis team of the Southern League, setting forth the advantages that the Southern League might receive by withdrawing from the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, and allying itself with the American Association.

Tebeau took the St. Paul matter as the excuse for his letter to Frank.

Tebeau is in poor business in trying to get a champion Frank in the fight with the man who induced Evans and Baby to jump their contracts. The National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues is on its last legs, and the American Association need not bother itself about it.

With the Amateurs.

The Morality Indians will play in Greensburg Thursday and Friday, and in St. Paul Saturday and Sunday.

The Metro Stars would like to hear from the Maroons or Hoosier Youth team.

Call on or address M. Ellis, 509 S. West street.

Of No Particular Kind.

Frank L. Kramer appears even more unbeatable this year than last. Kramer won the third-mile national championship race on the Coliseum track, in Pittsburgh, last night. Lawas was second, Owen Kimble third and Collett fourth.

George Leander won from Charles O'Connell, of Boston, in straight heats of a ten-mile motor-paced race, at Atlantic City, last night.

Time, 18:17 2-5 and 16:45.

Jockey R. Taylor, colored, was thrown in a steeplechase race at the Harlem track in Chicago yesterday and probably fatally injured, one of the vertebral bones being broken. There were six starters in the race and five of them fell at different points along the route.

The Indianapolis Aquatic Club will hold its annual regatta at Broad Ripple the afternoon of August 2.

The events will include single canoe, 200 yards; two-men Indian canoe, single paddles, 200 yards; double canoe, quarter mile; across stream swim; single canoe race, 80 yards; tub race, 50 yards; ladies' canoe race, 100 yards; upset canoe race.

Baseball Contest

On the Final Standing.

To The Indianapolis News:

The standing of the American Association baseball teams at the end of the season will be:

1. Louisville.....

2. Indianapolis.....

3. St. Paul.....

4. Kansas City.....

5. Columbus.....

6. Minneapolis.....

7. St. Louis.....

8. Toledo.....

9. Cincinnati.....

10. Chicago.....

11. Boston.....

12. Philadelphia.....

13. Washington.....

14. Cleveland.....

15. Pittsburgh.....

16. Detroit.....

17. Milwaukee.....

18. St. Louis.....

19. Cincinnati.....

20. Chicago.....

21. Boston.....

22. Philadelphia.....

23. Washington.....

24. Cleveland.....

25. Pittsburgh.....

26. Detroit.....

27. Milwaukee.....

28. St. Louis.....

29. Cincinnati.....

30. Chicago.....

31. Boston.....

32. Philadelphia.....

33. Washington.....

34. Cleveland.....

35. Pittsburgh.....

Eight Hundred Tickets Already Sold for Saturday's Fresh Air Baseball.

A more enthusiastic crowd of baseball fans than those that witness the games between teams of the Wholesale League would be hard to find. This fact was demonstrated a week ago Saturday, when a score or more of broken chairbacks were left behind at Washington Park as a sign of the enthusiasm of the crowd that saw the game between the Laycock and Lilly teams.

Messrs. Watkins and Ruschaupt permit the use of their park free of charge, for The News Fresh Air Fund, and in order that they be not put to any needless expense, it is asked of the followers of the Laycock and Levey Bros. teams that they confine themselves to the old and well-established method of venting their enthusiasm in the game next Saturday, when these teams will engage in one of their regularly scheduled games, the proceeds of which will go to The News Fresh Air Fund. The game is creating a great deal of interest, and the members of the two teams have taken 800 tickets.

FIGHTERS ARE WARNED AGAINST ANY FAKING

'FRISCO'S MAYOR WANTS TO SEE AN HONEST BOUT.

MEN IN PERFECT CONDITION

Fitz Wants Referee to Keep Jeffries from Hanging His 220 Pounds on Him in Clinches.

Mayor Schmitz, of San Francisco, yesterday took occasion to warn all those connected with the Jeffries-Pittsimmone fight, set for Friday night, that the fight must be absolutely "on the square." The mayor said that the Jeffries-Rubin bout a year ago was one of the worst fakes ever perpetrated in the prize ring, and he is determined to do everything possible to prevent a repetition of such an affair.

There is not believed to be any occasion for the mayor's warning, as Jeffries and Pittsimmone are in for a fight until one is in the clear. That the fight will be honestly waged, there is not the slightest doubt.

Both in Condition.

It looks now as though Jeffries and Pittsimmone will enter the ring in as fine condition as it is possible for mortals to reach. They have been trained carefully and show the results by their perfect color and health. Jeffries will weigh about 220 pounds the night of the fight and Pittsimmone will be at least 150 pounds under this.

This advantage in weight should tell greatly in the champion's favor.

That Pittsimmone fears Jeffries' weight is shown by the fact that he said yesterday that he had referee Grancy would see to it that Jeffries did not hang on him in clinches. One can't carry 220 pounds around for any length of time and remain fit and strong.

Jeffries will have in his corner Billy Deane, Joe Kennedy, his brother Jack and possibly Kildow. Pittsimmone will be looked after by George Dawson, Hank Griffin, Tom Wilson and one other yet to be selected.

Jeffries boxed eight rounds to-day with Jack Jeffries and Joe Kennedy as his opponents. Pittsimmone put in a day in the park and at his gymnasium.

CLEVELAND CLUB FIGHTS.

Will be Stopped, as Result of Last Night's Fiasco.

The best decision given at the so-called boxing contest between Eugene Bezenah and Steve Crosby at the Cleveland Club last evening was that of Police Superintendent Traft, not to allow any more date affairs in that place.

A four-round wrestling match between an overgrown boy from Noblesville, and one of Indiana avenue's rising stars, was followed by the best event of the evening.

A six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

Then came the most notable feature of the evening, a wait of an hour and forty-five minutes.

An elongated man with an air of rustic simplicity announced that there would be a short intermission. There was. After about forty-five minutes the principals climbed through the ropes and there was a six-round go between two scrappy little lads, who made up in willingness and speed whatever they lacked in science.

The Ayres Bulletin

Shopping News From the Store that Closes at 5 p. m.

Summer Cottons for Smart Frocks

That last importation of Belfast Dimities saved Indianapolis from a Dimity famine. Of course, there are plenty of American Dimities, but then a substitute hardly pleases a woman who has once proved the superiority of the real Belfast goods.

This late importation numbers about 100 styles, white and tinted grounds, dotted, striped and figured. 25c a Yard
The remains of earlier Dimity importations—probably fifty pieces, just as good, but picked over, now. 19c a Yard
A collection of thirty-five pieces of fine American Wash Goods, light and dark grounds, regular 18c and 25c goods. 15c a Yard
Twenty-five styles of American Dress Batistes and Pompadour Cordes, white and tinted grounds, regular 15c goods. 12c a Yard
Caret and Navy Blue and Black Ducks, standard quality and any size of dot you may demand; plain colors, too, and some with rings instead of dots. 12c a Yard
Three pieces of plain color Silk Organdy, gray, cadet and navy, the regular 60c goods. 47c a Yard
Five pieces of Etamine Linen, light blue, navy, pink and rose grounds, with white stripes, a very popular 60c material, now. 39c a Yard
The last three Novelty Shirtdress patterns, two pink embroidered in white and one natural color silk linen with green printing, $0.75 and $1.25 waist patterns. Choice, $3.95

L. S. Ayres & Co.
Indiana's Greatest Distributors of Dry Goods

The Anderson Gypsy

A New Ring Mounting for a Man.
It is simple, perfect, very "dressy" and a mounting to wear for years to come. We are showing a large assortment of Gentlemen's Rings.

$40.00 Upward to $200.00

Julius C. Walk & Son
INDIANA'S LEADING JEWELERS,
No. 12 East Washington Street.
Don't forget the ANDERSON GYPSY.

Lace Hosiery

White, Black and Colors.

25 CENTS

Tucker's Store
10 East Washington St.

Oculists' Prescriptions

Every optical improvement has been introduced by us. To-day in our prescription department you will find the most improved optical devices for the accomplishment of rapid work. Our grinding department is equipped with every mechanical device, even to the automatic edge grinders.

WIMMER OPTICIAN
16 North Pennsylvania Street

Special Prices...

WEEK OF JULY 21

Single Strap Buggy Harness... $9.00
Collar and Hame Saddle Harness... $25.00
These harness are worth 30 per cent. more than sale price.

STRAWMYER & NILIUS
37 Monument Place or 249 Mass. Ave.
New Phone 087 New Phone 2301

The Silber

LATEST STYLE PERFECT FIT

CAPTAIN RUBICON REGAL
2 1/2 inch Front. 2 1/2 inch Back. 2 1/2 inch Front. 2 1/2 inch Back.

The only collar in the world that is double-stitched and has the English welt. If your furrier does not supply you, write us.

GEO. P. IDE & CO., Makers
Factories—Troy, N. Y. CHICAGO, ILL.

Teeth $3

Union Painless Dentists
Cor. Market and Olive, East of Museum.

WE OWN AND OFFER BONDS

$30.00 Home Heating and Lighting Co. Bonds
$50.00 Marion Light and Heating Co. Bonds
$50.00 New Telephone Co. Bonds
$50.00 Pike County, Indiana Bonds
$50.00 Newton County, Indiana Bonds
$50.00 Sullivan County, Indiana Bonds
$50.00 U. S. Government Bonds

STOCKS
Belt Railroad common.
Indianapolis Fire Insurance Co.
H. P. Wasson & Co. 4 per cent. preferred.
Indiana Title, Guaranty and Loan Co.
Law Building.
Capital National Bank Stock.
Marion Trust Company.

J. P. WILD & CO., BANKERS
203 Stevenson Building.
Prices and particulars upon application.
Telephone—1339 Main; 3383 New.

Central College of Physicians and Surgeons

PROSPECTIVE NEW BUILDING IN SENATE AVENUE.

The new building of the Central College of Physicians and Surgeons, which is to be erected at a cost of $50,000, on the west side of Senate avenue, between Ohio and New York streets, is to be a thoroughly modern building of brick, stone and steel, three stories and a basement, with a frontage on Senate avenue of sixty feet, and a depth of 102 feet. The total floor space will be about 24,000 square feet. The building will be lighted by electricity and heated by steam, the power and heat to be furnished from a separate building on the rear of the lot. The exhaust-fan system will be employed for ventilating all rooms and the laboratories. According to the plans, the front half of the basement will be devoted exclusively to dispensary purposes, with large clinic rooms for each department. In the rear of the basement will be a large waiting periodicals and gymnasium equipment. It is proposed to have two classes in gymnastics, under the supervision of a competent instructor. Adjoining this room is a shower and dressing-room. The remainder of the basement story is to be occupied by bicycle and toilet rooms, and a coal-storage room for the accommodation and preservation of dissecting material by the ammonia process. Entrance to basement for dispensary patients is from Senate avenue, and for pupils from the north side of the building. Entrance to the large lobby on the first floor is from the east and north fronts of the building. Opening from the lobby are the reception room, secretary's office, faculty-room, a study-room for the students, the custodian's room, museum and two large lecture-rooms. The lecture-rooms may be thrown together, making a seating capacity for 200 persons. The second floor is devoted to laboratories for instruction in histology and bacteriology, and with sufficient room for preparation and for private research. The three working laboratories cover a floor space of more than 2,000 square feet. In the third story are the chemical, physiological and anatomical laboratories and complementary rooms for apparatus, private research and preparation. In addition to a practically continuous glass surface along three walls of the anatomical laboratory, supplementary light is furnished from a skylight of large area in the roof above. Herbert W. Foote is the architect.

DOWNING GETTING YELLOW

Because the State Fair's Golden Jubilee is to be Celebrated.

Around the State House, it is said that Charles Downing, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, is "getting yellow." The State Fair this fall is to celebrate its golden jubilee, and Mr. Downing is giving about everything in connection with the exhibition a tinge of gold. The offices of the State board resemble the warehouse of a paper mill, being stacked high with gray-colored posters and lithographs in which gold is a predominant color.

There is a gold cover on the State Fair premium list, and Mr. Downing is sowing 20,000 of these booklets over Indiana. He board will have the administration building on the Fair grounds painted in the color of a ten-dollar gold piece as paint can be made.

Mr. Downing says there will be a ton or two of rich yellow butter from Indiana farms on exhibition in the dairy building, which will be further evidence that the State Fair is fifty years old. Herds of Jersey cattle, which are about as near a golden color as live stock can get, will be on the grounds in large number.

Girls With Golden Hair.

The secretary of the State Fair says girls with golden hair are going to be reigning favorites on the grounds during the September exhibit. He says these girls will be real live ones, who will come from over the State to hear the band concerts, see the races and take in the sights generally about the grounds.

That Mr. Downing favors girls with golden hair is indicated by something like a card of window cards, which he is distributing over the State, announcing the golden jubilee.

The girls on these large cards are drawn from water colors, and they so closely resemble this branch of art that it requires an artist to detect the difference. Each girl is surrounded by bright yellow flowers that blend with her golden hair—golden rod, yellow carnations, pansies and similar blossoms being shown.

Letters on Yellow Paper.

The secretary is going to extremes in blending the golden color with the official stationery of the Fair. He is writing his letters on yellow paper and mailing them in yellow envelopes and it is also said about the State House, Mr. Downing is selling to carry any money around in his pockets that is of smaller denomination than gold pieces.

Undertakers Whitsett & Culver.

Ladies' service for women and children.

Attention, Virginia Avenue Property Owners.

All persons interested in the resurfacing of Virginia avenue are requested to be present at meeting to be held at 225 Virginia avenue, near Block, Wednesday, 24, 8 p. m. By order committee.

L. E. P.

This might stand for "Let Everybody Pray," or it might imply "Let Each Pray," or perhaps "Love's Eternal Power," but it doesn't. It simply means "Lenny's Extra Pale"—that's all. Well, that's good enough. Put in bottles by J. METZGER & CO. Tel. 897.

Mrs. Sallie Ferguson, Indianapolis, continued headache for three months. Cured. RHOY'S POISONED BLOOD CURE.

Every Night a Through Sleeper leaves Indianapolis at 7:30 p. m. for Detroit, via Pennsylvania line. Ask agents for particulars, or address W. RICHARDSON, D. P. A., Indianapolis.

Gas, Gasoline and Oil Stores. We have the largest variety. C. KOEHRING & BRO., 80 Virginia ave. Tel. 82.

Langenscamp Bros.' Brass Works. Founders and finishers. 128-142 E. Georgia. Brass, Bronze and Composition Castings.

Carriages. For weddings, parties. Everything new. WOOD & MORRISON, 221 E. Washington St. Tel. 322.

Try the Old Scotch Rheumatism Treatment. Druggists 10c and 15c sizes.

Razors and Barber Supplies. J. E. BODINE & CO., 37 E. Ohio.

Pioneer Brass Works. All kinds of brass and phosphor bronze castings. 624 S. Pennsylvania St.

Expert Truss Fitting. Zimmer, 122 E. Washington St.

Reduced Prices in Flour and Feed. CATTS, 221 W. Washington St. Both phones.

The Talk of the Town. FRANK E. BROWN'S $3 dress shoes. 206 E. Washington St. One square from market.

Feed your horse Jones's dustless oats. Carrots $1.25 Each. Cleaned and Relaid. CAPITOL CLEANING WORKS. Phone 813.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething, cures wind colic, diarrhoea, etc. See the best. It is Sulfur-Grip Powder. Fresh, white or brunette tints. 5c. At all leading stores.

TOWN TOPICS

Shelbyville Line's Belt Crossing.

Representative of the Union Railway company and the Indianapolis, Shelbyville & Southeastern Traction Company have held a conference with the county commissioners concerning the proposed crossing to be established at Prospect street over or under the Belt railroad by the traction company. The two companies have agreed to build a subway under the tracks if it meets the approval of the commissioners. The commissioners have ordered County Surveyor Clarence H. Lawrence, to locate the crossing. The board will also visit the place before making a decision as to whether a tunnel or viaduct shall be built.

No Requisition for Mrs. McGowan.

Governor Bliss, of Michigan, has refused to issue a requisition for Mrs. Fannie Cooley McGowan, of Anderson, who was arrested at Anderson, on charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. He has refused that the parties causing her arrest desired the requisition for her arrest.

Ask For Rifle Range at Fairview.

The four Indianapolis companies of the Indiana National Guard have applied to Governor Duffie for permission to establish a rifle range at Fairview. The last Legislature provided for rifle ranges, at which each company might have three days' practice.

The Rev. Thomas Smith's New Work.

The Rev. Thomas Smith, who has been pastor of the Union Congregational church, of this city, between three and four years, has resigned. He will take up evangelistic work.

$54.15—California and Return—$54.15 via Monon Route.

Through sleepers from Indianapolis Monday, August 4. Delightful itinerary. Call on or address H. P. ALGERO, D. P. A.

$1.25 Cincinnati and Return $1.25. Via C. H. & D. Sunday, July 27. Two special train rates; the first will leave at 8:30 a. m., stopping at Cincinnati and will leave at 7:15 a. m., stopping at Cincinnati, Hamilton, Leave Cincinnati returning 6:30 p. m.

Fast Time to Detroit via Lake Erie & Western and Wabash Roads. Leave Indianapolis 12:30 p. m. Arrive Detroit 4:30 p. m.

RIG FOUR ROUTE.

Excursions Sunday, July 27. Louisville, via the Grand Trip. Special train leaves Indianapolis at 7 a. m. Returning, Louisville at 7 p. m.

Lawrenceburg, via the Grand Trip. Special train leaves Indianapolis at 7 a. m. Returning, Lawrenceburg at 7 p. m.

Acton Park, via the Grand Trip. Special train leaves Indianapolis Union station at 7:30 a. m. Returning, Acton Park at 12:15 noon. 9 p. m. and 10 p. m.

SEASHORE EXCURSION. Via C. H. & D. B. & O. S. W. B. & O. Thursday, August 7. $15.00—Round Trip—$15.00.

Atlantic City, via the Grand Trip. Tickets good twelve days. Special train leaves Indianapolis at 7 a. m. Returning, Atlantic City at 7 p. m.

Old Point Comfort and Return, via the Grand Trip. Tickets good twelve days. Special train leaves Indianapolis at 7 a. m. Returning, Old Point Comfort at 7 p. m.

NIAGARA FALLS EXCURSION. Via C. H. & D. and Michigan Central. Saturday, August 2. $7.00—Round Trip—$7.00.

Tickets good twelve days. Special train leaves Indianapolis at 7 a. m. Returning, Niagara Falls at 7 p. m.

LAKE ERIE & WESTERN R. R. ANNUAL PERSONALLY CONDUCTED $7.00—Niagara Falls Excursion—$7.00. Thursday, August 7, 1902.

Leave Indianapolis 7 p. m. For berth, chairs, baggage, etc., call on agent, H. SELLERS, Passenger Agent, 28 E. Illinois St.

ANOTHER CHANCE. To Visit Historical Old Vincennes. $1.50—Round Trip—$1.50. Sunday, July 27th.

Via Pennsylvania line. Special train will leave Indianapolis 6:45 a. m. Returning, leave Vincennes 7:30 p. m.

VANDALIA LINE. $1.00—Terre Haute and Return—$1.00. $1.00—Greencastle and Return—$1.00. Sunday, July 27th.

Leave Indianapolis 7:30 a. m. Returning, special train will leave Terre Haute 7:30 p. m.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of J. C. H. Hatcher.

ANNUAL SEASHORE EXCURSION.

Pennsylvania Short Lines. $15.00—Round Trip—$15.00. Thursday, July 31.

Special train, with through sleepers and coaches, via Delaware river bridge route, to Atlantic City. Choice of the ten most attractive seaside resorts. Return limit twelve days. Stop-over at Philadelphia on return trip within limit. For particulars call on agents or address W. W. RICHARDSON, D. P. A., Indianapolis.

PENNSYLVANIA LINES. Lake Maxinkuckee and Return. $1.00—Round Trip—$1.00. Sunday, July 27th.

Special train will leave Indianapolis 7:30 a. m. Returning, leave the lake at 4:30 p. m.

Tents

Indianapolis Tent and Awning Co.

447 E. Washington St.

A. Metzger
Est. AGENCY 1883.

102 N. Penn. St.

Real Estate, Insurance, Loans, Investments.

Rental Collections
A SPECIALTY

Our central location insures a constant demand for good collections and store notes. Prompt Collections at Lowest Rates. TRY US.

Eberhardt & Co
Awning

TENTS FOR RENT.

New Telephone 1228. Old Telephone, Brown, 2332.

122 Capitol Avenue, South

SHISSEL'S SWIMMING BATH
...NOW OPEN...

Ladies' Days, Tuesday and Friday, from 9 till 12 m.

J. WILLEM, Instructor.

Read The News for Want Ads.

WANT ADS. ONE CENT A WORD.

More News of White Goods

25c St. Gall Embroidered Lawn..... 13
Fancy Striped and Checked Lawn, 5 yard..... 5
15c Satin Checked Sheer Lawn, 10

35c Sheer Lace Striped Lawn..... 19
20c Mercerized Jacquard Satin and
Lace Striped White Wadding..... 12
35c Fancy P. K. with polka dots and fancy figures..... 25

WASSON'S EXPANSION

getting into the Wash Goods Department and driving prices down to the lowest notch ever known.

These Special Values For To-Morrow

French Batiste, new colorings, including green on white, 25c quality, for..... 15
Embroidered Swiss, beautiful designs, including green on white, 25c quality, for..... 15
D'Aragon Batiste, beautiful designs, fine cloth, 20c grade, for..... 12 1/2
Arbutus Dimities, beautiful designs, fine cloth, 20c quality, for..... 12 1/2
Aristo Batiste, choice designs, 18c quality, for..... 10
Royal Batiste, extra wide, fine quality, 12c quality..... 6
Fast Black India Linen, 42 inches, double width, 25c quality, for..... 12 1/2

A Sensation in Silks

Just received from our manufacturer 12 pieces of those elegant Black Taffeta Silks, warranted to wear woven on every yard, $1.00 quality, for..... 65

Contracting Umbrella Prices

$1.50 colored fancy border Umbrellas, natural wood handles..... $1.19
$5.00 Umbrellas, all-stick, long pearl handles, silver-trimmed, made to sell for $5.00, our price..... $3.00
Child's Umbrella, worth $1.00, for..... .69

The Basement Bargains

15c real Manchester Chambrays..... .81
5c Cabinet Hair Pins..... .15
15c Perfumed Talcum Powder..... .15
5c Gold-400-count Pins..... .15
10c Miles' French Ammonia..... .15
8c Laces and Embroideries..... .15
30c real Oxford Madras..... .10
25c White Goods Remnants..... .9
10c Ladies' Taped Vests..... .64
30c Bleached Table Damask..... .18
35c 54-inch Table Padding..... .25
6c 81x90 Hemmed Sheets..... .50
12 1/2c Fine Pillow Cases..... .74

H. P. WASSON & CO.

THE H. LIEBER COMPANY

OFF TO THE LAKES

and don't fail to include a Camera as part of your outfit. Nothing can afford one more pleasure at so small a cost. There are two new ideas in Cameras out lately that you should see. We show them and give you all necessary pointers.

THE H. LIEBER COMPANY

WHEN YOU BUY A...

MERCANTILE

you are NOT paying for CHROMOS, SCHEMES, FREE DEALS, Etc., but for FINE QUALITY BAYANA TOBACCO. Export to Imported at 10c.

F. R. RICE MERCANTILE CIGAR CO. Manf. St. Louis. Union Made.

WE SELL

Star Safety Razors

AND...

Good Form Closet Sets

Paul H. Krauss

44 E. Washington Street

Established 1881.

SECRECY

No one outside of our office will ever learn of any loans we make you. All our business is strictly confidential. We loan money on personal property without removal. You can get $50 for fifty weeks and pay it back $1.20 per week. Other amounts in same proportion.

INDIANA MORTGAGE LOAN CO.

1 Lombard Bldg., 245 E. Wash. St.

TAFT

As W. Washington St.

A RED NOSE

CURED AT YOUR HOME

I can positively cure red nose, red face and blotchy, pimply, ugly skin, no matter what the cause. Consultation in person or by letter is free and strictly confidential.

JOHN H. WOODBURY, Dermat. Inst., 163 State Street, Chicago.

WANT ADS. ONE CENT A WORD.

Yes, the figure's reversed to-day—

YOU

get the profit—we turn things upside down in our light weight goods. To-day a light pocket-book heavy work. All that are left of the $15 and $18

Coats and Trousers go in our $11.75 sale at

The WHEN

EMBROIDERY SPECIAL. 20 sample pieces Embroidery and Lace, all widths, 5c. to 10c. 15c up to 10c values, a yard 5c.

34c

The Star Store

360-372 W. WASHINGTON ST.

Quick Selling Bargains

On Wednesday's Bargain Counter

500 Children's Wash Dresses at Half Price, made of very fine madras, gingham, perfectly fast colors and embroidered trimmed, sizes 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. The very best dollar dress ever made, here Wednesday, on the bargain counter at only.

50c

More Wash Goods Bargains

SILK GINGHAMS, immense assortment, choice of 30 and 40c grades, Wednesday only, at, a yard..... 35c
FINE DOTTED SWISS, imported Belfast Dimities, Novelty Batiste, Tissue Zephyr, etc., 20 pieces, 20c and 25c values, reduced to..... 14c
PRINTED DIMITIES, Mousseline, embroidered, Swiss, etc., season's choicest patterns, 100 pieces 15c, 18c and 25c grades, reduced to..... 10c
FIGURED DIMITIES, a well-known and well liked American brand, charming designs on white and tinted grounds, 10c and 15c values in basement, yard..... 5c
COTTON LACED, Corded Batiste, hundreds of pretty patterns, 8c, 8c and 8c values, a yard, 4c and 4c

15c

25c

5c

3c

5c

5c

5c

5c

5c

5c

5c

5c